WHO IS WATERAX?

The WATERAX mission is to place powerful, precision engineered pumps into the hands of wildland firefighters.

Headquartered in Montreal, WATERAX sets the industry standard by developing innovative, portable fire pumps and water-handling equipment designed to withstand demanding applications and rugged environments.

Built on 100 years of innovation, WATERAX is 100% focused on the real needs of wildland firefighting—for today and tomorrow.

WATERAX supports wildland firefighters as they protect communities, promote healthy forests and restore ecological integrity.

WATERAX has great people—a diverse and hard-working team in an interesting industry with important products that protect people and the environment. The company is growing and has a promising future!

Gary Da Silva
Product Manager

People around me are excited when I tell them that my work has an impact on wildfires and they want to know more when I tell them exactly what we do. My advice to job seekers who are thinking about a career with us will be to be humble, hardworking, and organized. We are all about respect.
